the conversion of the newspaper into a pro-American, anti-Communist organ; however, favoring the Roman Catholic Church viewpoint.

Since its inauguration in 1945 Lutzh has had a decreasing circulation due to the continuing emigration of the successive editors and their staffs. Consequently, upon assuming the editorship, van CUTSEN found the circulation to be a total of 100 copies daily. Since being in office van CUTSEN has succeeded in increasing the paper from a meager two-page daily edition to a four-page daily edition. The circulation of Lutzh has been increased from 100 daily to 200 daily. Van CUTSEN stated that members of six families read each copy of Lutzh.
He said he would sell more copies if the selling price (.60 Groschen per copy) was less prohibitive. The price is considerably high at this time because of the critical need of funds.

Van CUTSEN denied that Lutzh was ever an organ of the NTS (Natsionalni Trudovoy Soyuz - National Labor Union) but admitted that Vladimir KUNGURTSEV, an NTS leader now in Frankfurt, Germany, had been the Lutzh editor, who represented BULTMANN. He stated that KUNGURTSEV was editor of the paper for approximately one and one half years and had been extremely objective in his reporting and news analysis. Van CUTSEN stated it was KUNGURTSEV who recommended Horning BULTMANN, Schrannengasse 4, Salzburg, in registering with the local authorities as nominal owner and publisher of Lutzh, as Austrian law requires that only a native hold these offices. Van CUTSEN added that since registering, BULTMANN has been afraid to visit Kla. Br. Winkl, who resides in Vienna. He has also been afraid of police and Communist reprisals to her person.

Van CUTSEN stated that one (Miss) (fnl) Morris, ~~an employee at the NCWC (National Catholic Welfare Council)~~ has been the sole supporter of Lutzh since he assumed the editorship. She has done this by voluntary contributions to him directly; van CUTSEN did not think these contributions represented personal contributions but rather NCWC donations. On 11 August 1952 van CUTSEN was promised monetary aid for Lutzh by the American Public Information Service, Vienna, Austria. (Agent's Note: A recent copy of Lutzh, dated 10 August 1952, is attached to the original copy of this report as Exhibit "I". The original copy is attached to the file copy of this report as Exhibit "I".)
